

Peeking into Voice and Piano Pedagogy and Performance

Free Concert and Workshop

January 12, 2012

Noon Concert 12:10 – 1:00 pm

Workshop 1:30 – 3:30 pm

Walter Hall, Faculty of Music
The University of Toronto

Pedagogy Profs Perform

Soprano Lorna MacDonald, pianist Midori Koga, with violinist Erika Raum and Russell Hartenberger, vibraphone, perform music by Mozart, Donizetti, Saint-Saëns, John Greer, and songs from Japan.

Pedagogy Workshops

Lorna MacDonald and Midori Koga, with doctoral voice pedagogy and piano pedagogy students, present a fascinating workshop exploring the expanding field of pedagogy. Explore balance, breath, and student-centered learning in the classroom and studio. Music teachers, performers, and students alike will enjoy this event.

Midori Koga

Associate Professor of Piano

Lorna MacDonald

Professor, Lois Marshall Chair in Voice

Peek into the intriguing world of pedagogy and performance at the University of Toronto!